Strategic Forum 2012 Construction Commitments Signups - 200 and Counting

The Construction Industry Council are delighted to announce that the number of Construction organisations signed up to the 2012 Construction Commitments currently stand at 200 and counting.

The rise in signups reflects an ongoing commitment by industry to maximise the opportunity to showcase the very best of British Construction practice.

The 2012 Construction Commitments identify 6 key areas in the construction process that relate to the performance and behaviour of the industry; client leadership, procurement and integration, design, sustainability, commitment to people and health & safety,
