

Julia Evans OBE

Member appointed Director

CIC Board

Julia took up the role as CE BSRIA in May 2014 and is involved in the development of BSRIA's future growth and prosperity. Prior to her role at BSRIA, Julia was the CE of the National Federation of Builders.

During her time at the NFB, Julia has worked to secure more favourable conditions for members in a number of areas including public sector procurement, utilities, access to finance, health and safety, training and innovation.

She has also forged close links and partnerships across industry and was the founder of the Construction Alliance. Julia has also maintained a high public profile as a leading spokesperson and commentator on the industry, the economy and Government affairs in the UK and Europe. Julia also serves as Chairman of Leeds College of Building and takes a keen interest in the role of Further Education in the sector.
