

Louise Clarke

Non-Executive Director

CIC Board

Louise is Head of Sustainable Places at the Berkeley Group and is responsible for setting and implementing the group's strategy to create sustainable places. This includes focusing on key commitments for the business on climate change adaptation, social sustainability and sustainable procurement. Louise has specialised in sustainability throughout her career and has a keen interest in placemaking which stemmed from her masters in Urban Design.

Louise is a Non-Executive Director of Construction Industry Council (CIC), sits on the Green Construction Board and is Deputy Chair of CIC's Diversity and Inclusion Panel.