

INVITE: Understand changes to your estates

A healthcare specific seminar explaining the impact that Design Quality Indicators (DQI) & Building Information Modelling (BIM) will have on your projects going forward

Monday 23rd November 2015, 9:45 – 14:15

Venue: RIBA, Lutyens Room, 66 Portland Place, London, W1B 1AD

Seminar Agenda

- 9.45 Registration and networking
- 10:15 Welcome
Graham Watts, CEO, Construction Industry Council &
Phil Smith, Senior Estates Advisor, NHS England
- 10:30 James Chapman Architect, Emeritus Professor Manchester School of Architecture, DQI Facilitator:
The importance of DQI and experiences on health projects
- 11:10 Ralf Mosler, AEC Business Development Manager of Autodesk:
Delivering BIM in Healthcare.
- 11:50 Short Break
- 12:00 Simon Rawlinson, Partner, Head of Strategic Research and Insight, Arcadis LLP:
BIM Procurement – Lessons learnt from the UK BIM Task Group
- 12:30 David Kershaw, Programme Director for P21+ & Pat Pemberton, Healthcare Consultant, Interserve;
How NHS Trusts are improving Patient outcomes whilst reducing the cost of construction through use of Repeatable Rooms and Standard Components – delivered consistently via BIM and an innovative iPad application.
- 13:15 Discussion and Q&A
- 13:45 Complimentary lunch & 1 to 1 support
- 14:15 Close

R.S.V.P.

To secure your place please confirm your attendance to Makis Peppas at mpeppas@cic.org.uk
(limited availability)

In Partnership with:

Sponsored by:

